Vlado Vanis makes his Brandon Park debut tonight as an NSL coach. Vlado took over the coaching job at Melbourne Knights just a few weeks ago and had his first win against Sydney Olympic last weekend. We welcome Vlado and his form team.

As for Wollongong, it was an unfortunate loss we had last weekend against Marconi. We created so many scoring chances and it was disappointing to concede an early penalty and go down 1-0.

On the positive side, we have not conceded a goal in our last two home games, which is an outstanding effort. A pleasing aspect of our success so far this season has been that it is a collective team effort. That combined effort has entrenched us in the top six.

For our fans who like to see goals, Stuart Young hasn't hit the net for two games, so he will be keen to be on target tonight. It's unusual for Stuart to stay out of the scoring. Expect to see his name on the score sheet tonight.

At the back, Les Pogliacomi, Robert Stanton, David Cervinski and George Souris are keeping the defence sound and I expect they will keep Adrian Cervinski and Ivan Kelic under control tonight.

-Nick Theodorakopoulos

WOLVES SIGN TWO MAJOR SPONSORS

The Wollongong Wolves proudly announced the backing of not one, but two Major Sponsors, at a media conference held this week, at the Novotel Northbeach.

The two companies involved are : KIDZ.net- a worldwide operation which provides a safe internet system that contains hundreds of thousands of educational & entertainment sites for children aged 4 -16, and UNANDERRA HARDWARE MAN - The Illawarra owned & staffed hardware group that have been providing an extensive range of quality products (over 55,000 items), at competitive prices and exceptional service by knowledgeable & friendly staff, since 1953.

Wolves General Manager Graeme Haney, said "the club is delighted to have secured the support of these two extremely reputable and highly regarded companies, in a marketing partnership, which I am confident will prove to be mutually beneficial to all parties."

"It is significant that both companies are existing sponsors of the club and that they have extended their commitment to the Wolves, based on the club's ability to enhance the profile and operations of their respective businesses".

To accommodate both major sponsors and in addition to providing a varying range of sponsorship benefits, the club will display 'Unanderra Hardware Man' on the "Home" (red) playing shirt and "Kidz.net" on the "Away" (White) playing shirt.

Although the exact amount of the combined sponsorship will remain undisclosed, the six figure investment "I will greatly assist the club's cashflow, and further strengthen the club's overall position and future, representing Wollongong and the Illawarra region in the national sporting competition.

Mr Hans Van Der Haar (Unanderra Hardware Man) & Mr Ted Egan (Kidz.net), who were representing their respective companies, were both very excited and enthusiastic about the prospect of working with the club in the marketing of all three organisations

Commenting on the acquisition of the two Major Sponsors Haney said, "It is vital that everyone involved with the club (shareholders, sponsors, staff and supporters etc.), recognise the value of sponsors and help ensure they continue to sponsor the club, by supporting those sponsors who support the Wolves".

Youth team player Steven Dimitrievski is currently on a five-week tour of Britain with the Australian Schoolboys team. It's not the first time Dimitrievski has represented his country and he'll no doubt be a player to watch in the near future. Youth team coach Stuart Beedie said his most talented player would be missed although it was a perfect opportunity for him to further his career. Dimitrievski left Wollongong last Saturday and will play against teams such as the Manchester United youth team on his travels. We wish him a successful tour.

Colts team member Mitchell Prentice has also headed overseas and is trialling with English premier league club Middlesborough. Prentice will join another Australian in goalkeeper Mark Schwarzer at Middlesborough during his 10-day visit. Schwarzer has made himself Middlesborough's first-choice goalkeeper under manager Bryan Robson. Prentice made the trip to England as part of soccer's Big Brother Scheme.

Inside sources from the Brisbane

Strikers camp have revealed the club is so impressed with the new-look Wollongong Wolves full-colour program that they've adopted the same format with their own home-game publication. A journalist from Brisbane's Courier Mail newspaper picked up on the program and once he presented it to Strikers management they had no hesitation in following along a similar line to the Wolves. There's just one downside to their program though - it's in black and white. Maybe they'll catch up with us one day!

Brisbane midfielder Nick Meredith was kind enough to reveal to our inside source during the week the reasons behind the team's success this season. The Strikers head the NSL ladder with a bunch of mostly unknowns. They even disposed of reigning premier South Melbourne 5-1 last weekend. Meredith was quick to point out that coach John Kosmina had little option but to search the local leagues in hope of finding new talent.

He brought in six new players, four of whom have figured prominently this season. Meredith said the new players all resembled Forrest Gump in style: "They'll all young guys and they never stop running. It leaves opposing teams chasing their own tails and makes it easier on the creative players, like myself." The Wolves play Brisbane at Suncorp Stadium on December 28.

After missing out on the first-choice goalkeeping shirt at the start of the season, Les Pogliacomi has since made the position his own. He has kept two clean sheets in the past four games and only a penalty in last weekend's 1-0 loss to Marconi prevented him from making it a hat-trick of clean sheets.

Senior team member Christian Zelvis has succumbed to a leg injury and is expected to be out of action this weekend. Zelvis received a kick to the left leg a fortnight ago and received another last weekend.

Indent Tiles front man Denis Suess joined Noel Spencer, Daniel Beltrame and David Cervinski for a round of golf at Calderwood last weekend. It was a sponsors day-out and the awesome foursome soon clicked into gear winning the ambrose-style event with eight under the stick. Matt Horsley, another keen golfer, will be expecting a call from Denis after he was heard to say, all in the name of fun: "Denis has a poor golf game ... he needs a team like that to carry his score!"

Wollongong defender David Cervinski has a simple message for his Melbourne Knights brother Adrian ahead of tonight's clash at Brandon Park: "Don't expect to win!" At 28, David is the older of the brothers and is also a two-time grand final winner with the Knights. But he expects nothing less than a victory against his former club. David also has another remarkable fact: "Both Adrian and I have been playing in the NSL for eight years and we've never played against each other in that time," he said. David added he would love to get the chance to tackle his brother tonight, although Adrian is expected to play in the midfield, rather than in attack. "The Knights can play good football on their day, although they don't travel very well," David said. "I also think their defence is not as solid as in the past." Knights coach Vlado Vanis has had to rebuild after losing some quality players from last season. They will look towards Ante Kovacevic to lead from the front, along with new signing Mark Silic and Adrian Cervinski. The Knights defeated Sydney Olympic 2-1 last weekend.

- Nathan Simpson

Wollongong midfielder Paul Reid battles with Melbourne Knights at Brandon Park last season

It is vital that we contain the two dangermen - Ivan Kelic and Adrian Cervinski - tonight against the Melbourne Knights. Recent results suggest the Knights have hit some form and we don't want to face the same hiccup as we did last weekend when we lost 1-0 to Marconi.

Our defence has been good in recent games but we've still conceded more goals than we would have liked and that's why it's important we contain Kelic and Cervinski. We've trained well this week and had a good think about tonight's game.

Last weekend's loss is in the back of our minds and now we are looking forward to keeping our good run at home going.

It will also be a battle of the brothers when David Cervinski comes up against his brother and former Wolf Adrian tonight.

We welcome Adrian back to Brandon Park along with another former Wolf in Michael Reda.

I'm sure the boys will make it tough for them to settle in at Brandon Park.

In other news, the club is now taking numbers for the forthcoming Wolves Summer Soccer Camp to be held at Brandon Park and in Kiama in January. For more information contact the Wolves office on 4226 3988.

LEFT: Wollongong striker Stuart Young sums up what opportunities are available during a corner against the Gippsland Falcons at Brandon Park a fortnight ago. Gippsland defender Will Hastie did his best against Young, but the lethal forward caused his marker problems all afternoon. Young had numerous attempts on goal but it was David Cervinski and Saso Petrovski who netted Wollongong's goals. Young has had a good start to his NSL career with the Wollongong Wolves.

Chipperfield blasts Canberra out of the Cosmos

Wolves turn it on

Stunning 8-0 win at home

By PHIL MURPHY

The BHP Wolves scored a sensational, record-breaking 8-0 win against Canberra Cosmos in last night's Ericsson Cup game at Brandon Park.

Striker Scott Chipperfield scored four of the goals to become the league's joint top-scorer with nine and the Wolves now have 22 goals to their credit in nine games.

Wollongong's previous highest score was 7-0 at home to West Adelaide in the 1990 season.

Last night, they stormed to a 5-0 lead at halftime - having scored those goals in a 25-minute period.

When Fijian international Esala Masi started the rout with a clever back-heal in the 21st minute Wolves fans would have had no idea what was to follow.

They realised they were watching something special after Chipperfield completed his hat-trick to make it 4-0 after only 36 minutes.

Canberra contributed to the demolition by handing the home team two gift goals which Chipperfield and marker Alvin Cecotti accepted gratefully.

While Canberra were poor, the Wolves turned on some classy moves and could easily have reached double figures.

Flashback to December 6, 1996

It was a night when Scott Chipperfield had an itch for goal and his teammates also joined in the festivities - the end result being a memorable 8-0 win over a hapless Canberra Cosmos outfit. Chipperfield, who played in a forward position for the game, netted four goals and completed his hat-trick in the 36th minute. It was the Wolves' biggest NSL victory, the previous highest being a 7-0 win over West Adelaide in 1990.

CHAIRMAN'S REPORT:

We welcome Unanderra Hardware and Kidz.Net as our two new major sponsors of the home and away strip respectively. The Wolves board is extremely pleased to form this new relationship with Hans Van de Haar's local company and the Kidz.Net group which originated locally but is quickly spreading its activities worldwide.

A strong relationship with our current and new sponsors is vital to ensure the success of the Wolves in the National Soccer League both now and in the future.

Tonight we also welcome the Melbourne Knights. The Knights showed last weekend just how tenuous all positions are in this NSL competition and I'm sure Nick and his boys will realise just how focused we have to be to remain with the leaders.

On behalf of the board I welcome you all to Brandon Park for a fast and enjoyable game of football.

-Doug Symes

Youth/Colts team report

While it was pleasing to secure a 2-2 draw with the AIS a fortnight ago, it was disappointing to lose 5-2 to Marconi last weekend. Even when we were down 3-2 we seemed to be on top of our game, and at stages played better than Marconi. Against the AIS we were 2-0 up but it was no surprise that they bounced back. It was a credit to our boys to get a draw considering the AIS are one of the best junior sides in Australia. Unfortunately during that game, Nathan Thompson injured his knee and it will now require surgery. I wish Nathan a speedy recovery as we need him back in the team as he is a prominent figure. Today we face the Sydney Olympic Colts team. They are a strong team but it is a chance for us to get back on track with a win. It's games like these, against Colts teams, that we need to grab all three points.

- Stuart Beedie

Stuart sets target ... and scores!

New-signing Stuart Young wants to achieve the same success as he gained in Singapore - and that entails winning the league's top goal-scorer award. While the 26-year-old finds just as much joy setting-up a goal as scoring them, he admits it would be nice to finish among the leagues highest goalscorers in his initial NSL season. Young signed with Wollongong two games in to the new season and already has four goals to his name. He even won the prestigious Golden Boot Award while playing in Singapore. "I was two goals behind the leading scorer with one game to go and I ended up scoring four times in the final game, which won me the Golden Boot," he said. "I also received $10,000 along with the award." Young joined the Singapore league after a stint with Arsenal in the English premier league. He later moved to Wollongong with wife Claire after former Singapore teammate and current Wolves defender David Cervinski enticed him to come - and he hasn't looked back. "Wollongong is a great club. They are a terrific set of lads and I feel we can go as far as we want to in the NSL this season," he said. He also said the NSL was a strong league: "I'd say it's the same standard as division 2 in England although it's more physical over there. Still, the NSL is a good standard and I'm hoping to score a few goals along the way!" - Nathan Simpson
